Color can play a significant role in creating spaces that reinvigorate the mind and boost the spirits. The latest additions to the Corian® Private Collection are dramatically veined colors that capture the random beauty found throughout nature's landscapes. With elements from land and sky, these colors are designed to refresh, restore and renew.

The time-tested performance of DuPont Corian® together with the unique aesthetics of the Private Collection offer the function and styling you are looking for in today's countertop surfaces.
